Light for the World: A Beginner's Guide to Advent Amy-Jill Levine

During Lent an enthusiastic group studied Amy-Jill Levine's A Beginner's Guide to Mark. We found her to be provocative and informative (and entertaining). There is no doubt that her Guide to Advent will also provoke much discussion and provide food for thought.

Would you like to come along to a study group to be held at Mill House, Thorverton on the following dates: Tuesdays 3rd and 10th December at 3.00pm and then on Wednesday 18th December at 11-12.30 followed by a light lunch and the final session from 1.15- 3.00pm.

It would be helpful to purchase a copy of the book which is easily available from Christian bookshops and from Amazon.

If you are interested in coming along, please phone us on
